

**For those of you who want to get started in the media industry, don't overlook this opportunity!****

Broadcast Operations Internship

Get hands on experience in the heart of the TV industry by working with Broadcast Operations at MiND TV. These are the people who make certain the programs get on the air. They ensure the quality of all programs and manage the servers that store all the digital programs. Broadcast Ops. is a department that combines advanced software and hardware knowledge with high levels of organization and attention to detail. MiND TV, is looking for dedicated, energetic volunteers and interns.

Learning Opportunities:

- Learn about the scheduling process for digital television station.
- Get valuable experience in program sourcing, also known as traffic.
- Get experience in the encoding process and see the steps needed to bring a program to the airwaves
- Undergraduates can earn college credit

Responsibilities include:

- Entering program descriptions into the scheduling software
- Tracking programming for encoding from a variety of sources
- Encoding programs into the broadcast servers
- Data entry of all programming into the content management system

Hours needed: 20 hours a week

Please E-mail Resume to: jkegelman@mindtv.org

Or Fax Resume to: 215-483-6908

Or send resume and cover letter to:

Internship Program
Independence Media | MiND TV
8200 Ridge Avenue
Philadelphia, PA 19128

NO PHONE CALLS, PLEASE!

Independence Media is an Equal Opportunity Employer